This Week...

THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 2009

FINZ was at the Roosevelt Elementary School Walkathon in Worcester on Thursday morning, where students walked around the school property in order to raise money for a new playground. He handed out FINZ cards and signed autographs for the students who were extremely enthusiastic despite the gloomy weather! The close to 200 students enjoyed freeze pops and were determined to meet their goal. FINZ was happy to see the students work so hard for their playground. Check out the pictures above!

THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 2009

FINZ was at the Sutton Senior Center Pen Pal Event on Thursday where he enjoyed a luncheon with local students and members of the center. The seniors and students have been writing to each other through a pen pal program and were finally able to meet each other during this wonderful event. FINZ was there to talk with the around 50 guests and was pleased to make so many new friends. He was also impressed with the students' willingness to give back to their town through community service. Way to go!

SUNDAY, JUNE 14, 2009

FINZ rollerbladed the entire 10th Annual Worcester Firefighters Memorial 6k on Sunday at Institute Park. Many people participated and enjoyed a free BBQ at the end in appreciation for their efforts. Other festivities included a live DJ, kiddy corner, prizes, and a post-race party. FINZ signed autographs and met even more friends. In the past 10 years the program has raised over $235,000 for local organizations! All proceeds were donated to charity, including the Connecticut Burn Foundation, Genesis Club, Bottom Line, Community Harvest Project, and Sherry's House. FINZ is always happy to rollerblade for a good cause!
