

COMMUNITY NOTEBOOK

The Worcester Sharks are always busy in the community with special events, appearances, and more! Crash the net at sharksahl.com every Wednesday for weekly updates. After a week off, the Community Notebook is back in full force with a number of community events, including a super Saturday for FINZ!

Where we've been:

Thursday, April 3

Forward Riley Armstrong Makes a Hospital Visit (Worcester)

Worcester Sharks Man of the Year Riley Armstrong kept his tremendous community work going with a visit to see (HUGE Sharks fan) Nick Mercier at the UMass Medical Center Pediatric Unit.

Saturday, April 5

FINZ at Shark Head Shootout presented by Oggie Hockey Stick Grips (Marlboro, MA)

While the Sharks were traveling to Manchester to face the Monarchs, FINZ made a stop at the Sports Authority Grand Opening in Marlboro to help out with the Shark Head Shootout presented by Oggie Hockey Stick Grips! FINZ shot the puck with pinpoint accuracy!

FINZ at 15th Annual Teddy Bear Clinic (Worcester)

FINZ made his good deed for the day when he helped some sick teddy bears at the Greendale Mall!

FINZ at Shrewsbury Youth Hockey Coaches Game (Shrewsbury, MA)

FINZ made his third appearance of the day, this time at the Shrewsbury Youth Hockey Coaches Game. Sharks Director of Youth Hockey and Community Relations Michael Myers played net for the winning team, helping to backstop the Mite and House League coaches to the thrilling victory. Sharks resident DJ Matt Jacobs was on top of his game (as usual) in presenting the tunes.

Tuesday, April 8

"Be A Leader" Presented by Abigail Williams & Associates Visits Elm Park Community School (Worcester)

Worcester Sharks Defenseman Dan Spang was joined by FINZ, and Abigail Williams of Abigail Williams & Associates, in another great "Be A Leader" presentation at Elm Park Community School in Worcester, MA. Spang had a discussion with the students, which focused on tips about preventing and dealing with injuries. Along with the speeches, the students had an opportunity to ask questions and take part in activities to build teamwork and leadership skills. Steven Valente and Danny Williams joined Spang as guest speakers. The event was sponsored by Abigail William & Associates.

Brennan Evans and Brad Staubitz at QDoba in White City Shopping Center (Shrewsbury, MA)

Sharks players Brennan Evans and Brad Staubitz joined Brittany Decker and her family at QDoba Mexican Grille in Shrewsbury, MA. Decker won the "Dine with a Shark" contest and was joined by her family for dinner with some new best friends!

COMMUNITY NOTEBOOK

Where we're going:

Wednesday, April 9

FINZ at Nemice Trade Show (Boston, MA)

FINZ starts off the week with an afternoon at the Nemice Trade Show! He will be at the Heinz Convention Center from approximately 12-3 p.m. before hurrying back to the DCU Center for the Sharks' game against the Providence Bruins!

Thursday, April 10

FINZ and Dan Spang at "Be A Leader" (Dudley, MA)

Worcester Sharks Defenseman Dan Spang will be joined by FINZ, and Abigail Williams of Abigail Williams & Associates, in another great "Be A Leader" presentation at the Webster-Dudley Boys & Girls Club. As always, every "Be a Leader" program is sponsored by Abigail William & Associates.

Saturday, April 12

FINZ Leading Jesse Burkett Little League Parade (Worcester)

FINZ will lead the marching in the Jesse Burkett Little League Parade. It will begin at the Tatnuck Magnet School in Worcester and run from approximately 9-10 a.m.

FINZ at Healthy Kids Day (Westborough, MA)

FINZ wants to make sure everyone is healthy, so he will be attending the Healthy Kids Day at the YMCA Burroughs Family Branch in Westborough from 12:30-1:30 p.m. Remember to eat healthy and exercise!