

COMMUNITY NOTEBOOK

The Sharks are always busy in the community with special events, appearances, and more! Crash the net at sharksahl.com every Wednesday for weekly updates. “Be A Leader” at Southbridge Elementary School and a pep rally with the St. Peter Marian School highlight this week’s community notebook!

Where we’ve been:

Wednesday, January 23

Finz at St. Bernard’s School (Leominster)

Finz traveled north to visit the St. Bernard’s School in Leominster, MA from 1-2 p.m. He went from classroom to classroom visiting the students, taking pictures, and signing autographs.

Thursday, January 24

“Be A Leader” Presented by Abigail Williams & Associates visits St. Mary’s Elementary School

Worcester Sharks Defenseman Dan Spang was joined by Finz, and Abigail Williams of Abigail Williams & Associates, in another great “Be a Leader” presentation at St. Mary’s Elementary School in Worcester. The students listened to speeches from both Spang and Abigail Williams, who was accompanied by her son Dan in his first “Be a Leader” presentation. The speeches included tips about preventing and dealing with injuries. Along with the speeches, the students had an opportunity to ask questions and take part in activities to build teamwork and leadership skills. The event was sponsored by Abigail William & Associates.

Friday, January 25

Finz at Narragansett Middle School (Baldwinville)

Finz led the cheering with the Narragansett Middle School in Baldwinville, MA at their pep rally from 1:30-2:30 p.m. The rally was to celebrate the hard work and success of their winter sports teams. A group from the school is attending the Sharks game vs. Atlantic Division rival Portland on Saturday, February 23! You can do the same by crashing the net at sharksahl.com or calling (508) 929-0500!

Saturday, January 26

Finz Celebrates Birthdays of Shawna and Anthony Hurbut

Finz joined a pair of special Sharks fans, Shawna and Anthony Hurbut, in celebrating their sixth birthdays!
