

COMMUNITY NOTEBOOK

Along with success on the ice, the Sharks have been busy in the community with special events, appearances, and more! Every Wednesday, visit sharksahl.com to see what the Sharks were up to the previous week and what is on their slate for the week ahead. The “Be A Leader” program highlights this week’s community notebook!

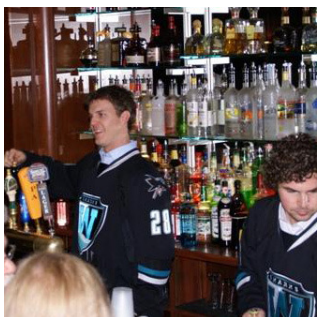

Where we’ve been:

Friday, January 18-Finz visit to Houghton Elementary School

Finz threw on his bathing suit and joined the Houghton Elementary School in Sterling, MA at their Beach Day. Everyone had a great time, not letting the frigid weather get in the way of a good time!

Saturday, January 19-Celebrity Bartending at Boston Billiard Club

Following the Sharks game vs. the Bruins, Riley Armstrong, Marc Busenberg, Josh Prudden, and Tom Walsh went to the Boston Billiard Club in Worcester to take part in a celebrity bartending event. A packed house joined, including the majority of the Sharks players, who took the opportunity to mingle with the best fans in the AHL!

(Left): Busenberg & Armstrong

(Right): Prudden

Tuesday, January 22-“Be a Leader” Presented by Abigail Williams and Associates Visits Spangville!”

Finz, Sharks defenseman Dan Spang, and Steve Valente the Law Firm of Abigail Williams and Associates visited East Brookfield Elementary School, home of “Spangville”, for a “Be A Leader” assembly. With the program, students gather to hear Spang, other members of the Sharks staff, and community leaders speak about leadership qualities and ways to better one’s life. Tuesday’s topic was focused on injury prevention. Following the assembly, each student received an autographed “Be A Leader” tip card, a FREE ticket voucher to a Future Sharks game, and a “Be A Leader” promotional item, compliments of Abigail Williams and Associates.

Where we’re going:

Wednesday, January 23-Finz at St. Bernard’s School in Leominster

Finz is traveling north to visit the St. Bernard’s School in Leominster, MA from 1-2 p.m.

Thursday, January 24-“Be A Leader” Presented by Abigail Williams and Associates visits St. Mary’s Elementary School

Finz will be heading to St. Mary’s Elementary School in Worcester early for the students’ lunch hour leading up to a “Be A Leader” assembly at 1 p.m. Once again, the topic of the talk will be injury prevention. Abby Williams of Abigail Williams and Associates will be joining Spang in another tremendous “Be A Leader” event!

Friday, January 25-Finz at Narragansett Middle School

Finz will be ready to cheer along with the rest of the Narragansett Middle School in Baldwinville, MA at their pep rally from 1:30-2:30 p.m. He’ll be ready to root them on to victory like he does the Sharks!

Saturday, January 26-Finz Celebrates Birthdays of Shawna and Anthony Hurbut

Finz is joining special Sharks fans, Shawna and Anthony Hurbut, in celebrating their sixth birthdays!