1.27.07 - Providence 5 - Worcester 2

In front of a capacity crowd at the DCU Center, the Worcester Sharks fell to division rival Providence by a margin of 5-2 on Friday night. A 5-0 advantage would hold into the third period, until Worcester finally solved Providence goaltending, which was now being carried out by Philippe Sauve. Patrick Traverse found Mike Iggulden out in front of the net, and the Sharks' second-leading goal scorer tallied his 16th of the year to narrow the deficit to 5-1. Iggulden would strike again on an assist from Brady Leisenring with just over a minute remaining in regulation to produce the final score of 5-2 in favor of the Bruins.

Dimitri the Dominator...

Dimitri Patzold had another fantastic week after going 2-0 with wins against the Houston Aeros and Binghamton Senators. Patzold is 4-0 in his last four starts and has a 106 total saves. In those four games, the netminder averaged less than two goals per game with just seven goals getting past him. In 15 games played, Patzold is 8-3-3 with a 3.30 goals-against average.

Staubitz Scores...

In his second professional hockey season, Brad Staubitz registered his first career goal on January 24 against the Houston Aeros. Mainly a defenseman, Staubitz has been playing forward and scored a scrappy rebound goal on his second attempt from in front of the Houston goal. The Bright's Grove, Ontario native has three points (1+2=3) in his last 11 games for the Sharks.
